

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

Indications of increased activity in the real estate market were apparent on every side yesterday. Some very important sales have occurred in private, while the many made and not announced by brokers, under orders of customers, become public through the formal transfers. The sale of the Fifth Avenue...

Samuel Green was the buyer of the plot on East 107th street, east of Lexington avenue, including of Handolph Gutzenghousen, as reported yesterday. A building loan of $341,000 was recorded in the name of C. F. Rowley on the property on the northeast corner of Morningside avenue and 118th street. Miles & Heiler have leased for the International Banking and Trust Company of 140 Broadway to International Express Company...

All of the property sold at auction was bought by the plaintiffs. Plans were filed with Building Commissioner Brady by F. R. Constock, architect, for a new twelve-story hotel for bachelors to be built for the Curtis estate, on the three lots at 155, 157 and 159 West Thirty-sixth street. The three lowest stories to have a facade of marble and granite and the other stories are to be of ornamental brick. The main entrance will have a portico of carved stone with double columns of polished granite on either side. All the front windows are to be of heavy plate glass. The hotel is to cost $1,000,000.

Plans were also filed by H. J. Hardenbergh, architect, for a new twelve-story brick store and loft building, 125x100, to be built for the Importers' Building Company, owner, at the southeast corner of Church and Leonard streets at a cost of $600,000.

Plans were also filed by B. W. Hooley, architect, for a two-story brick and stone dwelling to be built for Robert McCafferty, owner, at the southwest corner of Madison avenue and Eighty-second street, at a cost of $120,000. W. C. Dickinson, architect, for a two-and-a-half-story brick dwelling to be built for C. H. Phillips, owner, on Tinton avenue, north of 108th street, at a cost of $150,000, and Albert Rothenthal, architect, for a three-story brick and stone dwelling to be built for George S. Boiger's son, owners, on 14th street, west of Brooker's avenue, at a cost of $70,000.
